The gossip of the press have Secretary Bayard and Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland engaged. If this is true the Secretary is decidedly mormonistic in his tastes.

The opera of "Pinafore" is to be produced in Hastings shortly by home talent. This is another indication that Hastings is aspiring to be the musical center of the state.

There has been considerable activity in real estate of late, and now that the weather is getting warmer, the boom will set in in earnest; already transfers amount to a quarter of a million per week.

LANCASTER county will be represented in the Chicago convention by Mr. Patrick Egan, a gentleman of much erudition and ability of a high order. The republicans of Nebraska are to be congratulated upon the selection of so worthy a representative.

ACCORDING to the guesses of the Omaha papers that city has a population of 120,000. This makes Lincoln's population 60,000. Seriously though, when the national census is taken Omaha will receive a set-back, on account of this extravagant guessing.

THE FRENCH PROSE, Major Kleutsch's excellent German paper, is to be commended for the enterprise displayed in the series of articles published regarding Lincoln, her resources, industries, etc. Every one of them is a boom article, and will doubtless do much toward bringing the advantages of this city before the intelligent Germans of the country, and as a result immigration will follow.

THE latest arithmetical problem is as follows:—Put down in figures the year in which you were born (1890 for instance,) add 4, plus your age at next birthday if before January 1st, (if after that date at your last birthday,) multiply by 1,000, and from the total subtract 677,423. The result, if the figures are taken to denote their numerical equivalent of the alphabet, will give your standing in society. For instance, 1 will be a, 2 be b, 3c, etc.,

A VERY pretty scene was witnessed in San Jose, Cal., the other day when General Fremont, wife and daughter, paid that city a visit. They were accorded a magnificent reception, and while the speaking was in progress a soft and silent shower of rose leaves fell upon the group, and not until the exorcises were completed did it cease. Repeatedly Mrs. Fremont shook off the leaves, but they fell fast and thick, covering her head and shoulders and forming a pile in her lap. When the shower ceased, rose leaves covered the stage floor a foot in depth.

THE following items from a valued exchange in the western part of the state, indicate that the old saying that "true love doesn't run smoothly" holds good still:—

Why is it that Tom Dunn makes so many visits to the divide?

Has any one got any more bale wire than he can use? If so, please let it be known, as we are going to petition that Miss Bloom's yard fence is not lawful. Mary built it a little higher, then E. G. won't try to jump it.

Mr. Bowman goes to see his girl now once a week. That's business. Later reports bring us that he is down with the mumps. Too bad Mat, too bad.

A VERY elegant work entitled "Wonderland" has been received at this office with compliments of Chas. S. Lee, General Passenger Agent of the Northern Pacific. The book numbering ninety eight pages, is a model of neatness and skilful art. The frontispiece is a beautiful view of the rugged mountains, offset by a cluster of flowers, all in colors and producing a rich effect; and throughout the work is shown various views of the country in Oregon, Washington Territory and Alaska. On the inside is a map showing Yellowstone National Park, location of Continental divide, the Yellowstone lake and river, the geysers, falls, ponds, etc. The book will be of special interest to the many who are now looking up the great northwest with a view of locating. To such this book will be sent free on application to the general passenger agent at St Paul, Minn.

THE NOVELIST, Alden's new weekly Magazine, which is devoted entirely to American fiction, is a remarkably attractive and popular enterprise. Every reader interested in high class fiction should send to the publisher for a free specimen copy. The first completed story is Robert Tinsol's A Fossilist, an uncommonly bright, readable story, making about 200 pages, which is sold in paper for 15 cents, or in cloth, 35 cents, post paid. It would not be easy to name a novel in which the conversation has so much wit, humor and clever findings, sustained throughout with such unflagging vivacity. There is not a single dull page in the book. Moreover, it has—what was so much desiderated by Charles Darwin—a good ending. The hero is thoroughly cured of his pessimism. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, New York and Chicago.

LITERATURE, Alden's new illustrated weekly Magazine, is certainly one of the brightest, handsomest and most readable of the literary papers—of course it is the cheapest, for Alden publishes it. $1.00 a year; specimen copy free. Especially interesting papers in the last issue are: Law Vanderpoole on Romance in Fiction; Frederick Hastings on John Ruskin's Forge, and Edmund Gosse on Henrik Ibsen, the Scandinavian poet, which is accompanied by a fine portrait. It is a fine paper for every home library. John B. Alden, Publisher, 303 Pearl Street, New York; 218 Clark Street Chicago.

Noble Deeds.

"Noble Deeds of our Fathers, as Told by Soldiers of the Revolution, Gathered Around the Old Bell of Independence," is the name of an interesting book revised and adapted for supplementary reading in schools, and for school libraries everywhere, soon to be published by LEE AND SHEPARD, Boston. The noble purpose of this book is to awaken in the minds of young people a deep veneration of the patriots and heroes of the American Revolution who grandly achieved the independence of our great Republic, and to cultivate that spirit of patriotism so needful to insure the permanence of the form of government under which we now live. The signs of the times illustrate the great need of the present generation in our country fully appreciating the immeasurable cost in blood and treasure of the freedom and the institutions with which our Nation is now blessed. In the pages of this book,—which are well illustrated,—will be found stories of the chief men of the Revolution, so concocted by the manner in which they are narrated, as to give a general interest to all; the "Old Bell of Independence" being the rallying point of the veteran story-tellers. Every phase of the struggle is presented, and moral and religious character of our forefathers, even when engaged in deadly conflict, is depicted with great clearness. The young reader,—indeed, older readers will like the stories,—will be deeply interested in the story of Lafayette's return to this country, of reminiscences of Washington, of the night before the Battle of Brandywine, of the first prayer in congress, of the patriotic women of that day, stories of adventure regarding Gen. Wayne, the traitor Arnold, the Massacre of Wyoming, the capture of Gen. Prescott, and in other narratives equally interesting and important. Such a book at this time ought to be, and will receive a cordial reception, because of its worth and the principles which it seeks to inculcate.

The Bane of Hot Weather.

There is no time that is looked forward to by the mothers of small children, with more mortal dread, than the hot weather of the summer months, especially in this case when their children are teething. The number of children that are carried away annually by bowel complaint, in its various forms is prodigious. Yet almost every case could be cured by proper care and treatment. During the past fifteen years, it has been abundantly proven, that the worst cases could be cured and by a remedy within the reach of all. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has cured thousands of cases, that were considered hopeless, it has cured them after physicians have failed to relieve it, has cured them after other medicines had been tried without benefit, it has even cured them after they had become unconscious. It can always be depended upon, and should be kept at hand, by every mother of small children. When children are teething, the diarrhoea can not be checked permanently, as the same cause that produced it will bring it on again, but it can and should be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as the case may require. Then when the child is through teething, the diarrhoea may be effectually checked. This remedy has been the sole reliance of thousands of mothers throughout the west for over fifteen years, and its cures have shown it to be the best, and most reliable remedy ever produced for the purpose. When reduced with cold water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take. Many children like it. It is put up in 25 cent, 50 cent and 1 dollar bottles.

My child, seven months old, was taken sick with summer complaint. I called on our family physician and procured medicine, and used it for nearly three weeks but still the child continued to get worse. I was persuaded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and inside of four days, we had the child's bowels regulated and in a short time it was well. Since that time I always keep a bottle of the preparation in my house.

A. O. MOTES, Scottsville, Kansas.

We feel satisfied that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the best medicine we handle for all diseases of the bowels; we have given it a thorough test. A member of our family, a little girl, had been very sick with bowel complaint, we had the doctor to see her twice after giving her what medicine the doctor left and seeing that she would have to have more we concluded to try Chamberlain's. From the first dose she commenced to improve and soon recovered.
